Yolanda,

Question from probation regarding interest on the restitution... Do you know if it is legally required, or can it be waived?

Thanks, [Ex. 6 PP / Ex. 7(C)]

Shawn and Stu,

This case is a bit different as restitution was ordered as a condition of release, so the Court never addressed whether interest should be waived.

What are your thoughts on his ability to pay interest? If it were set out as a typical case with restitution, I would have noted that he does not have the ability to pay and, therefore, interest should be waived.

If you both agree to it being waived, I will advise the Court and amend the special condition to reflect such.

Sorry for missing that.

Thank you,
